

THEY MADE IT A PROJECT... When the Clothing II class at Torrance High heard that the pre-school children attending the Child Care Center needed aprons, they decided to make it a project. The PTA allocated funds to Mrs. Leo Levanas, PTA welfare chairman, to purchase material. At the apron presentation are, from left, Pamela Doran, 2; Riana Bell, 11th grader; Mrs. Levanas; Susan Pritchard, 4, wearing a new apron; and Rayleen Carsentina, 11th grader. (Press-Herald Photo)

Class Makes Aprons for Center's Pre-Schoolers

Finding that the Pre-school Child Care Center in Torrance was in need of aprons, Mrs. Leo Levanas, Torrance High School PTA Welfare chairman, brought the problem to the executive board of the association. Funds were allocated for the purchase of material, and girls of the Torrance High School Clothing II class volunteered to make the aprons as a class project.

Gala Christmas Benefit Staged by Moose Women

"Christmas in October," supporting Mooseheart, a home for children and Moosehaven, a home for the aged, was staged by the Women of the Moose, Torrance Chapter 44, on Oct. 7 at the Moose Hall on Carson St.

Lee S. McMasters, vice president of the South Central District of the California Moose Assn. and affiliated with the La Mirada, Loyal Order of Moose lodge, described these two homes to members, pointing out that the Moose Women and Moose Lodges make it possible for dependent children to receive the best possible medical care, education and training. Their "Christmas in October" parties provide happy holidays for the children and the aged. He also pointed out that the Moose Lodge is taking part in the fight against leukemia, as another of its community and national projects.

After the speech, Milton Tuarman as Santa Claus made his entrance and assisted by Mr. LeMasters collected the cash donations to be turned over to Mooseheart and Moosehaven.

Sponsoring the Chapter night was Mrs. Morris Stotlemire, Mooseheart chairman and her committee, Mmes. Noel Peacock and Lulu Solomon, assisted by Mrs. Wilfred Bourassa, Moosehaven chairman, and her committee, Mmes. Arthur Galinsky, Charles Kail, Otto Krummnow and Alice Wynn.

New members enrolled were Mmes. James Ryan and Laura Sarva.

Special guests were James D. McGune, president of the South Central District of the California Moose Assn.; James A. Evans, secretary of the Torrance lodge; B. E. Finke, governor; Thomas
